ANNUAL REPORT

March 2023

The Wallingford Historic Properties Commission respectfully submits this 2023 Annual Report of activity, which occurred during the previous session of March 2022 to March 2023. The Historic Properties Commission is pleased to serve the Town of Wallingford as outlined in Wallingford Ordinance #466.

OVERVIEW:

Establishment of the Commission:

The Wallingford Historic Properties Commission (HPC) was established by the Wallingford Town Council by Ordinance #466 of the Wallingford Code Part II, Chapter 127.1-3 on January 26, 1999 and in accordance with Connecticut General Statute (CGS) Section 7-147.

The Town Council appointed the first roster of 5 regular and 3 alternate members on March 27, 2001. The Commission's Regulations and Rules of Procedure were approved and adopted 10/18/01; revised 6/26/2013.

Purpose of the Commission:

The purpose of the Commission is to preserve and protect the significant historical qualities of the buildings under its jurisdiction so that the public may enjoy their presence within the Town of Wallingford for generations to come. Providing for a greater awareness of Wallingford's cultural and architectural heritage, these sites are reflective of the 17th, 18th, 19th centuries and of the professionalism of the early historic preservation movement.

Scope of Jurisdiction:

The Commission shall administer and shall have only such powers and duties as may directly relate to the specific historic properties designated by the Wallingford Ordinance or by amendments thereto. Only those properties listed in the Wallingford Ordinance are affected by HPC Regulations and Procedures. The three properties included are:

538 North Main St – Known as Nehemiah Royce House (c.1672)

153 South Main St – Known as Franklin and Harriet Johnson Mansion (c.1866) *Barn demolished Jan. 2011

1211 Barnes Rd – Known as Joseph Blakeslee House (c.1780) *House demolished 11/17/08

Powers and Duties:

The Commission has those powers, will perform those functions and will be subject to such limitations as provided by the Connecticut General Statutes under Chapter 97a, titled "Historic Districts and Historic Properties" (CGS Section 7-147) and as it may be amended from time to time. The Commission shall review and act upon all applications for Certificate of Appropriateness. Unless exempted by CGS Section 7-147, no building or structure, earthworks or site of recognized historic or archaeological importance, within the boundaries of a historic property shall be erected, altered, removed or demolished until after an application for a Certificate of Appropriateness has been submitted to and approved by the Commission.

BUDGET:

2022 Budget: Zero ($0.00)

The commission has no budget allotted by Town Council. All members serve without compensation. Expenses incurred in 2022 from generating the Annual Report, letters and mailings were paid for by members of the Historic Properties Commission.

2023 Expected Budget: Zero ($0.00). The commission has no budget allotted by Town Council.

COMMISSION MEMBERS:

Commission Members: March 15, 2022 – March 9, 2023

Regular Members: Cheryl Christie Collett, Tara Knapp, Kimberly Lode-Dellaselva, Barbara Sibley, Raymond Ross

Alternate: Bob Prentice

Officers: March 15, 2022 – March 9, 2023

Chair: Kimberly Lode-Dellaselva; Vice-Chair: Cheryl Christie Collett; Clerk: Tara Knapp

ACTIVITIES: March 15, 2022 – March 9, 2023

March 15, 2022: The annual commission meeting was held on March 15, 2022.

An overview of each of the properties was discussed. There were no new updates to discuss.

Expiration of Commissioner Terms: Barbara Sibley's term was to expire in 2022 with this annual meeting. The Commission recommended that she be reappointed by the Town Council for another five-year term. Barbara agreed and a letter of recommendation was sent to Town Council.

Officers were selected for the next term of May 2021 to March 2022.

April 12, 2022: Town Council considered and approved the reappointment of Barbara Sibley to a five year term on the commission.

March 2022 – March 2023: No WHPC meetings occurred.

PROPERTIES:

Blakeslee Property - 1211 Barnes Rd.: Owner, Town of Wallingford.

No applications for certificate of appropriateness received. No known activity.
