PRESS RELEASE

[Wallingford, CT] — [Jan. 23, 2026] — The Town of Wallingford is pleased to announce that Geoffrey Einhorn was officially sworn in today as the Town Attorney during a ceremony held at Town Hall.

Einhorn has served as Assistant Town Attorney since Jan. 2012. He brings extensive legal experience in municipal law, and will serve as the chief legal advisor to the Mayor, Town Council, and all town departments, boards, and commissions. In this role, he will provide legal guidance on ordinances, contracts, litigation, and other matters affecting the Town's operations and governance.

"We look forward to working with Attorney Einhorn," said Wallingford Mayor Vincent Cervoni. "His experience gathered while working as the Assistant will make for a smooth transition." Einhorn's appointment follows the recent retirement of former Town Attorney Gerald Farrell, Sr. Farrell first joined the Town of Wallingford's Legal Department in 1984, after his work for the Public Utilities Commission had begun during the decade before. We want to thank Farrell for his decades of exceptional municipal service and wish him well in retirement.

"We are grateful for Attorney Farrel's service with the town," said Mayor Cervoni. "His assistance and oversite of the town's legal matters present a significant legacy, worthy of acknowledgment."
