New Wallingford Police Department Website

In partnership with  websolutions, the Wallingford Police Department is pleased to announce the launch of its new Department Website. This website will allow community members greater access to the agency and provide a platform to showcase agency events and officer achievements. We will continue to grow the website as we move forward and welcome feedback from the community.

Visitors can access the site at the following address: <https://www.police.wallingfordct.gov>
