Larry Kellogg is dealing with his sister's estate in upstate New York, but he can obtain 30 bags of donated mulch for us to put at the labyrinth.

The town agreed to purchase property at 352 Main Street (Route 150) in Yalesville, which will provide better street/sidewalk access to the planned new bicycle/pedestrian bridge to Fireworks Island.

Police Chief John Ventura agreed to the placement of a security camera at the labyrinth and has agreed to the signage wording: "This area is under video surveillance."

The proposed new sign with map and rules was submitted to Parks & Rec Director Kenny Michaels, with no answer yet. Cathy will submit it to P&R commissioner John Sullivan.

We will prepare an educational insert about dog waste, and Cathy will submit it for circulation in town water and electric bills.

Parks & Rec can provide plastic dog waste bags for our dispensers on the trail.

Public Works will grade the ground by the kiosk and lay the bricks that are piled there.
